

A portrait of Savion Glover, a man with dark skin and dreadlocks, wearing a blue blazer over a white shirt and blue jeans. He is sitting and looking towards the camera with a slight smile. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

SAVION GLOVER

"He could arguably be the best tap dancer that ever lived. He's a genius."

- Gregory Hines

BARE SOUNDZ is a rhythmic exploration of tap masters and their percussive moves and melodies. Stripped entirely of other instruments, this piece is bare with Savion and two other performers journeying through sound and tap like no other outing.

SAVION GLOVER'S HOLIDAY SPECTACULAR is an extraordinary family program marching through classic holiday songs with a company of dancers and riveting solo moments with Savion Glover and the band, Dance Candy. This festive hour and twenty minute program wows the audience with taking eight traditional holiday melodies and giving the joyful punctuation that only a master hooper could deliver.

SOLO IN TIME is an outing marrying flamenco rhythms with Glover's intense percussive sound taking the audience on an extraordinary history of the interplay of flamenco rhythms and tap.

SOLE SANCTUARY is a powerful rhythmic meditation that informs the audience of the great forefathers of tap. Mr. Glover soulfully manifests through his dance their art, song and legacy. Embraced on the stage by photos of his mentors, Savion weaves breathtaking magical rhythms for an hour and half.

SAVION GLOVER AND JACK DEJOHNETTE is a tour de force of percussion that introduces two masters of unprecedented sound and rhythm.

STEPZ concocts an amazing array of tap combinations with Glover's company that elevate the audience to an exciting evening of song and the dance.