

MORGAN JAMES: HOLIDAY POPS

Fresh off the release of her sixth studio album, "Soul Remains the Same," soul singer, Broadway veteran and symphony favorite Morgan James always brings her own brand of soul music and classic covers, with a dynamite band in tow. Her love for holiday music runs deep, from classical favorites to modern holiday hits—there's no better way to ring in the season.

After training at the Juilliard School, Morgan was on Broadway in five original Broadway companies, has appeared as a soloist with major orchestras around the world, and now makes records and tours full-time with her own band. With Postmodern Jukebox and with her own YouTube channel, Morgan's music videos have accumulated more than 300 million views.
