

Tatiana Eva-Marie & The Avalon Jazz Band

"Djangology"

Nicknamed "the Gypsy-jazz Warbler" by the New York Times and acclaimed as a "millennial shaking up the jazz scene" by magazine Vanity Fair, Tatiana Eva-Marie returns to explore the music of composer Django Reinhardt, through her own original arrangements and lyrics in her latest project, a tribute inspired by her French and Romanian Gypsy heritage, and her love for the Parisian art scene of the 1920s to the 1960s.
