

#SISTERSINLAW LIVE SHOWS

Webby Award-Winning Podcast | Sold-Out U.S Shows | Smart. Candid. Unmissable.

#SISTERSINLAW Live offers an exciting front-row seat to the lively debates and razor-sharp commentary that captivates listeners. The Webby Award-winning podcast brings together four of the most respected political and legal masterminds in the USA, to break down the biggest political and legal stories of the week. The Sisters pull back the curtain on how the US government actually works, take on the corrupt, share their wisdom and give us their rulings on the latest in politics, law, and culture.

MEET THE HOSTS

Joyce Vance - The first woman appointed as U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Alabama by President Obama, MSNBC legal analyst, and Distinguished Professor Of The Practice of Law at the University of Alabama School.

Barb McQuade - Appointed by President Obama as the first female U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Michigan. Currently Professor From Practice at the University of Michigan Law School and legal analyst for NBC News and MSNBC. Best-selling author of Attack from Within: How Disinformation Is Sabotaging America.

Jill Wine-Banks - Legendary Watergate prosecutor, MSNBC contributor, and best-selling author of The Watergate Girl. The first female General Counsel of the U.S. Army and first female executive director of the American Bar Association.

Kimberly Atkins Stohr - Senior opinion writer at The Boston Globe. A former lawyer, served as the first Washington, D.C.-based news correspondent for WBUR and as the Boston Herald's Washington bureau chief. A regular contributor on MSNBC and guest host of WBUR's On Point.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Launched in February 2021, debuting at No.1 on the Apple Podcast politics chart
- Webby Award Winner, Best News & Politics Podcast 2024 - marking the coveted honor of international distinction for Internet excellence
- Sold-Out U.S. Shows – New York, Chicago, Portland, Boston, Detroit, D.C. and more
- Global Audience – millions of downloads across 100+ countries
- Loyal, Educated Audience – highly engaged, progressive, and politically aware